Supervisor Knabe made the following statement:

“Rowland Heights residents will be joining the Walnut Sheriff's Station and local businesses on Saturday, April 3, 2004, to celebrate the Safe Communities Week Festival at Rowland Heights Park.

“Booths will be set up for neighborhood businesses and community organizations, music and entertainment will be provided, and special programs for children will be available throughout the day. All proceeds from the festival will go to the Youth Athletic League in Rowland Heights.

“Once again, the Yogi Bear School House will be an added attraction and will serve as a valuable educational tool for the hundreds of children and adults who are expected to attend the Festival.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Knabe, seconded by Supervisor Molina, unanimously carried, the Board waived fees in the amount of $100.00, excluding the cost of liability insurance, for use of the Yogi Bear School House for the Walnut Sheriff's Station and local businesses' Safe Communities Week Festival, to be held at Rowland Heights Park on April 4, 2004.
